Statement of Beliefs and Practices

The mandate of Church of Christ Development Company Ltd. (CCDC) is to promote the Gospel of Jesus Christ by providing low interest capital loans to congregationally governed churches and parachurches in Canada, except the Province of Ontario.

CCDC is governed independently but shares a common set of principles, based on a commitment to Biblical integrity, with the historic Restoration Movement, and outlined in the following Statement of Beliefs and Practices:

- Teaching “no creed but Christ, no book but the Bible” (containing 66 sub-books)
- Teaching “where the scriptures speak we speak, where they are silent we are silent”
- Teaching “we are Christians only but not the only Christians”
- Practicing baptism by immersion after confession of faith in Jesus as Lord and Saviour
- Practicing open observance of the Lord’s Supper preferably weekly but at least monthly

Agreement

We (I), the undersigned charity, donor, employee or director, plan to be in partnership with CCDC and acknowledge that we (I) have read and understand the above Statement of Beliefs and Practices. We (I) hereby affirm there is no conflict with our (my) own beliefs and practices and understand that if we (I) engage in communications or practices that are in conflict with the above Statement our partnership could be terminated.
